

UNSECONDED

Meaning: Unseconded refers to a lack of support or endorsement for a proposal or decision, indicating that no one has agreed or backed it.

1. The proposal was unseconded, leading to an awkward silence in the meeting room.
2. She felt unseconded in her decision to pursue a career in art, as no one supported her.
3. Despite his enthusiasm, the motion remained unseconded and was quickly dismissed.
4. In the debate, many ideas went unseconded, showing a lack of consensus among the participants.
5. He stood alone in his beliefs, often feeling unseconded by his peers in discussions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unseconded>