

UNSERVICE

Meaning: To unservice means to remove from active use or to deactivate a service or equipment.

1. The technician had to unservice the old equipment before installing the new models.
2. Due to the ongoing maintenance, the café decided to unservice its outdoor seating area for the season.
3. After noticing persistent issues, the manager chose to unservice the faulty vending machine.
4. The hotel was forced to unservice several rooms due to unexpected plumbing problems.
5. Before the upgrade, the IT department planned to unservice all outdated computers in the office.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unservice>