

UNSETTLEMENT

Meaning: Unsettlement refers to a state of emotional or psychological disturbance or unease, often resulting from unexpected changes or uncertainties.

1. The sudden change in management caused a sense of unsettlement among the employees.
2. Her unexplained feelings of unsettlement made it difficult for her to focus on her studies.
3. The financial crisis led to widespread unsettlement in the stock market, affecting investors globally.
4. He sensed an unsettlement in the community after the controversial decision was announced.
5. The unsettlement of her emotions was evident as she struggled to articulate her thoughts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unsettlement>