

UNSINEW

Meaning: To unsinew means to weaken or strip away strength and vitality from someone or something.

1. The harsh winter winds seemed to unsinew even the strongest of trees.
2. Years of neglect had unsinewed the once-vibrant community, leaving it in disarray.
3. She felt the relentless stress of her job unsinew her resolve and enthusiasm for work.
4. His constant criticism began to unsinew her confidence, making her second-guess her abilities.
5. The relentless demands of her personal life began to unsinew her passion for art.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unsinew>