

UNSOCIABLE

Meaning: UNSOCIABLE: Adjective describing a person who is not inclined to seek or enjoy social interaction with others.

1. His unsociable demeanor made it difficult for him to make friends in the new city.
2. Despite her unsociable tendencies, she found solace in the company of her pets.
3. The unsociable nature of the cat often left guests feeling unwelcome in the house.
4. In a world that thrives on interaction, being unsociable can sometimes feel like a burden.
5. They described him as unsociable, preferring to spend evenings alone with a good book.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unsociable>