

UNSPELL

Meaning: To undo or remove the effects of a spell or to retract something previously said.

1. The magician performed a spell to unspell the enchanted object.
2. In her dreams, she wished she could unspell the hurtful words she had said.
3. After realizing his mistake, he sought a way to unspell the chaos he had caused.
4. The ancient book contained a ritual that could unspell the curse placed on the village.
5. To move forward, she needed to unspell the memories that haunted her.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unspell>