

UNSPIKE

Meaning: To remove or reverse a previously applied spike or increase, particularly in reference to project parameters or budget allocations.

1. The engineer had to unspike the project after realizing the initial design was flawed.
2. In the meeting, she suggested they unspike the budget to accommodate unexpected expenses.
3. After the storm, the team worked quickly to unspike the fallen communication lines.
4. He decided to unspike his schedule to make more time for personal projects.
5. The mechanic had to unspike the tire to repair the inner tube effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unspike>