

UNSTING

Meaning: Unsting (verb): To release or alleviate emotional pain or resentment, often by fostering kindness or forgiveness.

1. She decided to unsting her heart by letting go of past grievances.
2. The charity event aimed to unsting the community's spirit through acts of kindness.
3. His laughter seemed to unsting the tension in the room, bringing everyone together.
4. To unsting her words, she added a touch of compassion to her critique.
5. They sought to unsting the atmosphere by incorporating fun activities into the meeting.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unsting>