

UNSTITCH

Meaning: Unstitch: to remove stitches from a fabric or garment.

1. She decided to unstitch the old quilt to repurpose the fabric for a new project.
2. The tailor had to unstitch the seam after realizing it was not aligned correctly.
3. In her frustration, she chose to unstitch the hem of the dress and start over.
4. It took hours to carefully unstitch the intricate embroidery without damaging the fabric.
5. He promised to unstitch the knots in the thread before continuing with the sewing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unstitch>