

UNSTOCK

Meaning: Unstock: to remove items from shelves or display in a retail setting, often to make space for new products or to clear out unsold inventory.

1. The store manager decided to unstock the shelves to make room for the new merchandise.
2. After the inventory audit, the team realized they needed to unstock several items that were no longer selling.
3. They had to unstock the outdated products to comply with the latest health regulations.
4. To refresh the display, the employees were instructed to unstock all the summer items and replace them with fall collections.
5. The decision to unstock specific brands was influenced by customer feedback and changing trends.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unstock>