

UNSUBSTANTIAL

Meaning: Unsubstantial: lacking sufficient evidence, support, or validity; insubstantial.

1. The evidence presented in court was deemed unsubstantial, leading to the case being dismissed.
2. Despite his passionate argument, the claims he made were ultimately found to be unsubstantial.
3. Her fears about the project were based on unsubstantial rumors rather than any concrete facts.
4. The committee rejected the proposal due to its unsubstantial financial backing and vague objectives.
5. Many critics argued that the film's plot was unsubstantial, lacking depth and meaningful character development.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unsubstantial>