

UNSWEAR

Meaning: To unswear means to formally retract or revoke a previously made oath or allegiance.

1. She decided to unswear her oath after realizing it conflicted with her values.
2. In a surprising turn, he chose to unswear his allegiance to the organization.
3. The judge allowed her to unswear the testimony that had been coerced.
4. It was a rare occasion when a politician publicly announced he would unswear his previous statements.
5. To maintain his integrity, he felt it necessary to unswear the promises he could not keep.
6. It's hard to unswear an oath once it's been made in front of witnesses.
7. She wished she could unswear the words that had hurt her friend so deeply.
8. In a moment of anger, he regretted his outburst and wanted to unswear his harsh comments.
9. To unswear a promise feels like unraveling a bond that was once cherished.
10. After reflecting on his actions, he decided it was time to unswear his previous commitments.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unswear>