

UNTEMPERATE

Meaning: Untempered refers to being excessive or lacking moderation, often in terms of remarks or environmental conditions.

1. His untemperate remarks during the meeting shocked everyone present.
2. The untemperate climate of the region made it difficult for crops to thrive.
3. She was known for her untemperate behavior, often losing her composure in public.
4. Despite his untemperate passion for the subject, he struggled to convey his ideas effectively.
5. The untemperate nature of the debate escalated tensions between the opposing factions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/untemperate>