

UNTENANT

Meaning: UNTENANT (verb): To remove tenants from a property or building.

1. The landlord decided to untenant the property after several months of unpaid rent.
2. In an effort to renovate the building, the city council planned to untenant the old apartments.
3. Due to the severe damage from the storm, the building was untenanted for safety reasons.
4. Before they could sell the property, they needed to untenant it and address any necessary repairs.
5. The real estate agent notified the tenants that they would need to untenant the premises by the end of the month.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/untenant>