

UNTOOTH

Meaning: Untooth (adjective): lacking teeth or having lost one's teeth, often implying a diminished vitality or charm.

1. The old man's smile revealed a grim reality; he was untooth and seemed to have lost his zest for life.
2. In the quaint village, there were whispers about the untooth cat that roamed the streets, charming everyone it encountered.
3. Her laughter echoed through the room, but it was tinged with an untooth sadness that made everyone pause.
4. As I examined the ancient manuscript, I noted that the artist had depicted a untooth figure, evoking a sense of vulnerability.
5. The once vibrant garden now lay untooth, its colors faded and its flowers wilted under the weight of neglect.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/untooth>