

UNTROWABLE

Meaning: UNTROWABLE: Adjective describing items or waste products that cannot be thrown away or disposed of, often due to regulatory, safety, or environmental concerns.

1. The concept of untrowable items can often lead to confusion during inventory assessments.
2. In the debate on environmental policy, some argued that certain waste products were inherently untrowable.
3. The artist's installation featured materials deemed untrowable, challenging perceptions of value and disposal.
4. During the cleanup, they discovered several untrowable objects that posed safety hazards.
5. His untrowable opinions on the matter sparked lively discussions among the group.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/untrowable>