

UNTRUST

Meaning: To untrust means to lose confidence or faith in someone or something.

1. She began to untrust her instincts after a series of poor decisions.
2. His repeated lies led her to untrust him completely, despite their history.
3. It's difficult to establish a relationship when you untrust everyone around you.
4. After the betrayal, he found it hard not to untrust those who had once been close.
5. The constant secrecy made it impossible for her to avoid untrusting her colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/untrust>