

UNTUNE

Meaning: UNTUNE: To disrupt or alter the proper functioning, harmony, or balance of something, whether mechanical or emotional.

1. The mechanic's careless adjustments seemed to untune the delicate engine.
2. She felt the need to untune her emotions after weeks of stressful deadlines.
3. As the storm raged outside, the wind seemed to untune the harmonious sounds of nature.
4. His efforts to relax were undone when the loud music untuned his focus.
5. The artist decided to untune her usual style and experiment with abstract forms.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/untune>