

UNTWINE

Meaning: Untwine: to separate or undo something that is twisted or tangled.

1. She took a moment to untwine the tangled strands of her hair.
2. The artist skillfully began to untwine the intricate threads of the tapestry.
3. As the sun set, the shadows seemed to untwine themselves from the trees.
4. He watched the children play, their laughter untwining the tension of the day.
5. With patience, she managed to untwine the knots in the fishing line.
6. She worked carefully to untwine the complicated knots in the old fishing net.
7. As the sun began to set, the vines started to untwine, revealing the forgotten path beneath.
8. It took hours to untwine the delicate threads of the tapestry without causing any damage.
9. The magician's trick involved making the ropes untwine themselves in mid-air.
10. In her mind, she tried to untwine the memories of their past from the pain of their breakup.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/untwine>