

UNTWIRL

Meaning: Untwirl: to unwind or unravel something that is twisted or coiled, often resulting in a smooth or graceful form.

1. As she began to untwirl the tangled strands of yarn, a sense of calm washed over her.
2. The dancer gracefully untwirled, revealing a stunning sequence of movements that captivated the audience.
3. He watched the kite untwirl in the wind, its bright colors flashing against the blue sky.
4. With a flick of her wrist, she managed to untwirl the necklace that had become knotted in her jewelry box.
5. After several attempts, he finally succeeded in untwirling the stubborn hose from the garden cart.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/untwirl>