

UNVALUABLE

Meaning: Unvaluable refers to something that is considered to have little or no monetary worth or value, often overlooking its intrinsic or personal significance.

1. The artwork was deemed unvaluable by critics, yet it held deep personal significance for the artist.
2. In the grand scheme of things, their contributions to the community felt unvaluable to those who prioritized wealth.
3. Despite its age, the manuscript contained unvaluable insights into the historical context of the era.
4. The memories we shared during our travels are truly unvaluable and will remain with me forever.
5. He realized that the lessons learned from failure were unvaluable compared to any monetary gain.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unvaluable>