

UNVEIL

Meaning: To unveil means to reveal or make something visible for the first time, often in a formal or ceremonial context.

1. The artist will unveil her latest sculpture at the gallery opening this weekend.
2. During the ceremony, the mayor plans to unveil a plaque commemorating the town's founding.
3. Scientists are excited to unveil their groundbreaking research on climate change next month.
4. The company will unveil its new product line at the annual technology conference.
5. After months of anticipation, the film studio finally decided to unveil the trailer for the upcoming blockbuster.
6. The artist plans to unveil her latest sculpture at the gallery opening next week.
7. After months of anticipation, the company will finally unveil its new product line.
8. During the ceremony, they will unveil a plaque honoring the town's founders.
9. As the curtain fell, the magician chose to unveil his most astonishing trick yet.
10. The researchers are excited to unveil their groundbreaking findings at the upcoming conference.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unveil>