

UNVESSEL

Meaning: Unvessel (verb): To remove cargo or goods from a vessel, typically a ship, in order to lighten the load or facilitate unloading.

1. The sailors were eager to unvessel their cargo after the long journey.
2. In the midst of the storm, they had to unvessel the ship to lighten the load.
3. The decision to unvessel the materials allowed for quicker access during the repairs.
4. After arriving at the port, they began to unvessel the supplies for the expedition.
5. Unvesseling the boat was a meticulous task, requiring both skill and precision.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unvessel>