

UNWARM

Meaning: Unwarm (adjective): lacking warmth; cool or not heated, often resulting in an uncomfortable or uninviting sensation.

1. The chilly breeze made the coffee feel unwarm in my hands.
2. Despite the sun shining brightly, the air remained unwarm and uninviting.
3. She wrapped herself in a blanket, feeling the unwarm draft from the window.
4. His unwarm demeanor made it difficult for others to approach him.
5. The soup was supposed to be served hot, but it arrived unwarm and disappointing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unwarm>