

UNWARRANTED

Meaning: Unwarranted means lacking justification or being undeserved.

1. The criticism she received was completely unwarranted given her excellent performance.
2. His fears about the project's failure seemed unwarranted in light of the positive feedback from clients.
3. The manager dismissed the complaints as unwarranted and focused on improving team morale instead.
4. Unwarranted assumptions can lead to misunderstandings and conflict in any relationship.
5. They considered the lawsuit to be unwarranted and a misuse of resources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unwarranted>