

UNWILD

Meaning: To unwild means to restore an area to its natural, untamed state by removing human influences and reintroducing native species.

1. The conservationists aimed to unwild the area by reintroducing native species.
2. After years of urban development, the park sought to unwild the landscape, restoring it to its natural state.
3. They encouraged local farmers to unwild their fields, allowing native flora to thrive once more.
4. The documentary highlighted efforts to unwild regions affected by industrial pollution and deforestation.
5. In an attempt to unwild the encroaching suburbs, the city initiated a rewilding project to revive local ecosystems.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unwild>