

UNWILLING

Meaning: Unwilling means not ready or inclined to do something; resistant or reluctant to act or agree.

1. She was unwilling to compromise on her principles, even for the sake of harmony.
2. Despite the clear benefits, he remained unwilling to change his routine.
3. The team was unwilling to accept defeat and continued to fight until the very end.
4. Many students were unwilling to participate in the survey due to privacy concerns.
5. He felt unwilling to confront his fears, preferring to avoid them instead.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unwilling>