

UNWRAP

Meaning: Unwrap: to remove the outer covering or packaging from something, or to reveal or disclose something that has been kept hidden.

1. I carefully began to unwrap the delicate gift, eager to see what was inside.
2. She decided to unwrap her feelings and share her deepest thoughts with her friend.
3. As the children gathered around, they couldn't wait to unwrap their presents on Christmas morning.
4. The artist chose to unwrap the canvas, revealing a stunning painting hidden beneath the layers.
5. I watched in anticipation as he slowly unwrapped the mystery box, revealing its secrets one by one.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/unwrap>