

UP-LINE

Meaning: Up-line refers to a route or communication channel that is oriented towards a higher or primary destination or source, typically in transportation or organizational contexts.

1. The train moved swiftly along the up-line, connecting the smaller towns to the bustling city.
2. During the meeting, we discussed the need to improve the up-line communication between departments.
3. The technician inspected the up-line equipment to ensure it was functioning properly.
4. In the context of network design, an efficient up-line is crucial for data transfer speeds.
5. As the project progressed, the team realized that the up-line logistics were more complex than anticipated.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/up-line>