

UPBIND

Meaning: To upbind means to intricately connect or unify various elements into a cohesive and harmonious whole.

1. The intricate design of the sculpture seemed to upbind the artistic elements in a harmonious way.
2. As the waves crashed against the shore, they appeared to upbind the scattered shells and pebbles into a beautiful mosaic.
3. The innovative technology was able to upbind the fragmented data, creating a cohesive narrative from the chaos.
4. During the ceremony, the vows exchanged served to upbind the couple in a promise of eternal love and commitment.
5. Her ability to upbind the various threads of conversation made the discussion flow seamlessly and engagingly.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upbind>