

UPBURST

Meaning: Upburst: a sudden and intense occurrence or surge of emotion or activity.

1. The sudden upburst of laughter from the audience filled the room with joy.
2. After a long silence, an upburst of creativity led her to complete the painting in one sitting.
3. The scientist recorded the upburst of energy from the reactor, noting its implications for the experiment.
4. An unexpected upburst of emotion overwhelmed him as he read the heartfelt letter.
5. During the storm, there was an upburst of wind that rattled the windows and shook the trees.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upburst>