

UPHOLSTER

Meaning: To upholster means to provide furniture, especially seats, with padding, springs, and fabric or leather covering.

1. The old armchair was in desperate need of being upholstered to restore its former glory.
2. After hours of searching for the perfect fabric, she finally decided to upholster the dining room chairs.
3. He learned how to upholster furniture as a hobby during the pandemic lockdown.
4. The local workshop offered classes on how to upholster various types of chairs and sofas.
5. Choosing the right color and texture is crucial when you decide to upholster a piece of furniture.
6. The craftsman decided to upholster the antique chair with a rich, velvet fabric.
7. She watched as the team worked diligently to upholster the theater seats for the grand reopening.
8. After years of wear and tear, they finally chose to upholster the sofa in a modern pattern.
9. He took a course to learn how to upholster furniture, hoping to start his own business.
10. The vibrant colors of the fabric truly brought the old armchair back to life after they had it upholstered.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upholster>