

UPLOCK

Meaning: Uplock (noun): A mechanism or system used to secure or lock heavy objects in place, typically to prevent movement or damage.

1. The ancient castle was built with an uplock system to secure its heavy wooden doors.
2. During the storm, the sailor had to activate the uplock to prevent the sails from being damaged.
3. The engineer explained how the uplock mechanism worked to ensure the safety of the elevator.
4. After several attempts, she finally found the uplock that would allow access to the hidden chamber.
5. To enhance security, the new model of the bike came equipped with an advanced uplock feature.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uplock>