

UPPROP

Meaning: Uproot: to remove or eliminate something completely, often referring to established systems, traditions, or structures.

1. The engineer decided to uproot the existing infrastructure and reconfigure the entire layout.
2. After years of growth, they finally decided to uproot the old traditions that no longer served their community.
3. To make way for the new park, the city plans to uproot several trees along the main road.
4. She felt a sense of relief as she chose to uproot the toxic relationships that had weighed her down for so long.
5. The gardener skillfully managed to uproot the stubborn weeds without damaging the surrounding flowers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upprop>