

UPROAR

Meaning: Uproar: a state of noisy confusion or public disturbance, often resulting from strong disagreement or protest.

1. The decision to close the local park caused an uproar among the community members.
2. During the town hall meeting, the residents expressed their uproar over the proposed tax increase.
3. The film's controversial ending led to an uproar on social media.
4. After the announcement of the new policy, there was an uproar in the workplace, with employees demanding changes.
5. The uproar from the crowd grew louder as the band took the stage for their first song.
6. The decision to raise taxes created an uproar among the residents of the town.
7. After the controversial announcement, the crowd erupted into an uproar, demanding answers.
8. The uproar over the new policy was so intense that officials had to hold an emergency meeting.
9. Her performance received an uproar of applause, leaving her visibly moved on stage.
10. The uproar in the courtroom was palpable as the verdict was read, with emotions running high.
11. The announcement of the surprise concert caused an uproar among the fans.
12. His controversial comments created an uproar on social media, sparking heated debates.
13. The uproar in the audience was palpable as the unexpected winner was announced.
14. After the decision was made, an uproar erupted, leading to protests outside the venue.
15. The film's ending left many viewers in an uproar, with varying opinions flooding the reviews.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uproar>