

UPSEND

Meaning: To upend means to overturn or disrupt something, causing it to be disordered or thrown into chaos.

1. The sudden gust of wind upsend the papers scattered across the table.
2. His unexpected announcement seemed to upsend the entire meeting agenda.
3. The artist's latest work was designed to upsend traditional notions of beauty.
4. The new policy aims to upsend the existing hierarchy within the organization.
5. During the debate, she managed to upsend her opponent's argument with ease.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upsend>