

UPSPEAR

Meaning: 'Upspear' refers to a sudden or significant increase or rise in a particular phenomenon or activity.

1. The sudden upspear of the comet surprised astronomers around the world.
2. In a remarkable upspear of innovation, the tech industry unveiled several groundbreaking products.
3. The team's upspear in performance during the championship game shocked their rivals.
4. Historically, an upspear in population often correlates with increased economic growth.
5. Her upspear in confidence was evident as she confidently delivered her presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upspear>