

UPSTART

Meaning: Upstart: a person who has risen suddenly in wealth or status, often perceived as inexperienced or presumptuous by established figures.

1. The young entrepreneur was often dismissed as an upstart by the established leaders in the industry.
 2. Despite being an upstart, her innovative ideas quickly gained the attention of major investors.
 3. The upstart political party challenged the traditional norms that had governed the region for decades.
 4. Many viewed his rapid ascent in the corporate world as the typical story of an upstart with a chip on his shoulder.
 5. While the upstart musician initially struggled for recognition, her talent eventually won her a loyal fan base.
 6. The upstart company quickly gained attention for its innovative approach to renewable energy.
 7. Despite being an upstart in the fashion industry, her designs have already attracted major celebrities.
 8. Many established firms view the upstart as a threat to their long-held market dominance.
 9. His confidence and ambition were typical of an upstart eager to make a name for himself.
 10. The political upstart challenged traditional views and energized a younger voter base.
 11. The young entrepreneur was seen as an upstart in the competitive tech industry.
 12. Despite being an upstart, she quickly gained respect for her innovative ideas and bold strategies.
 13. The established firm viewed the upstart as a threat to their market dominance.
 14. His upstart attitude often ruffled feathers among the more experienced team members.
 15. In a world dominated by tradition, the upstart company challenged the status quo with its fresh approach.
-

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upstart>