UPSTIR

Meaning: To upstir means to provoke or awaken strong emotions or reactions in a group or individual.

1. The recent scandals have begun to upstir public opinion against the government.
2. Her passionate speech was enough to upstir the dormant enthusiasm of the crowd.
3. The documentary aims to upstir discussions about climate change in local communities.
4. An unexpected event could upstir the carefully laid plans for the festival.
5. His provocative article was designed to upstir controversy and debate among readers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upstir