

UPSTREAM

Meaning: Upstream refers to the direction or source from which a river flows or to the initial factors contributing to a problem or situation.

1. The river flows upstream towards the mountains, making it a challenging trek for hikers.
2. In the debate about climate change, scientists are advocating for policies that address upstream causes of pollution.
3. The engineers proposed a new design that would improve water quality by filtering contaminants upstream.
4. During the concert, the band decided to play a song that was originally written upstream of their popular hits.
5. The fish migrate upstream each year to spawn in the same waters where they were born.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upstream>