

UPTEAR

Meaning: To uptear means to pull or tear away from the ground or surface, often due to natural forces such as water or wind.

1. The heavy rain caused the riverbank to uptear, flooding nearby fields.
2. As the storm intensified, the old tree's roots began to uptear from the ground.
3. The construction crew had to uptear the old pavement to lay new foundations.
4. Her intense emotions seemed to uptear the calm facade she had maintained for years.
5. The archaeologists were careful not to uptear any artifacts while excavating the site.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uptear>