

UPTHUNDER

Meaning: Upthunder: a loud, rumbling sound, often associated with thunder or a storm, that reverberates through the atmosphere.

1. The storm clouds began to gather as the wind howled and upthunder echoed across the valley.
2. In the midst of the celebration, an unexpected upthunder caused everyone to pause and look up at the sky.
3. The upthunder from the approaching storm sent chills down my spine, signaling that we needed to find shelter quickly.
4. As the thunder grew louder, the upthunder seemed to resonate with the excitement in the air.
5. With each rumble of upthunder, the anticipation of rain built among the parched fields.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/upthunder>