UPTRAIN

Meaning: Uptrain (verb): to provide additional training or education to employees in order to improve their skills and adapt to new technologies or methodologies.

1. The company decided to uptrain its employees to keep pace with technological advancements.
2. In an effort to enhance skills, the organization implemented a program to uptrain its workforce.
3. As part of their commitment to professional development, they will uptrain staff members regularly.
4. The management team emphasized the importance of uptraining to maintain competitive advantages.
5. To adapt to new industry standards, the team planned workshops to uptrain all relevant personnel.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uptrain