

URETHROSCOPE

Meaning: A urethroscope is a medical instrument used by urologists to visually examine the urethra and urinary tract for diagnostic purposes.

1. The urethroscope is an essential tool for urologists performing diagnostic procedures.
2. During the examination, the doctor used a urethroscope to identify any abnormalities in the patient's urinary tract.
3. Advancements in urethroscope technology have significantly improved the accuracy of diagnoses.
4. Patients are often apprehensive about urethroscope procedures, but they are typically quick and minimally invasive.
5. After the procedure with the urethroscope, the patient was relieved to hear that everything appeared normal.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/urethroscope>