

URETHROTOME

Meaning: Urethrotome: a surgical instrument used to incise or cut the urethra, typically for the treatment of urethral strictures.

1. The surgeon used a urethrotome to carefully incise the narrowed section of the urethra.
2. After the diagnosis of urethral stricture, the urologist recommended a procedure involving a urethrotome.
3. Patients undergoing urethrotomy often experience less discomfort thanks to the precision of the urethrotome.
4. The urethrotome is an essential instrument in urology, specifically designed for treating urethral obstructions.
5. Following the surgery, the effectiveness of the urethrotome was evident in the patient's improved urinary flow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/urethrotome>