

URETIC

Meaning: Uretic refers to a substance or medication that promotes the production and excretion of urine, often used to reduce fluid retention.

1. The doctor prescribed a uretic to help manage her patient's fluid retention.
2. After taking the uretic, he noticed a significant decrease in swelling.
3. Uretics are often used in the treatment of high blood pressure and heart failure.
4. Many athletes avoid uretics due to their potential side effects and dehydration risks.
5. The uretic effect can lead to increased urination and should be monitored closely.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/uretic>