

URGE

Meaning: Urge (verb): to strongly encourage or persuade someone to take a specific action or to feel a powerful desire to do something.

1. I felt a strong urge to help the stray dog I found on the street.
2. The teacher urged her students to submit their projects before the deadline.
3. Despite his initial reluctance, he couldn't resist the urge to join the conversation.
4. She had an overwhelming urge to travel after watching a documentary about distant places.
5. The advertisement was designed to create a sense of urgency and urge customers to act quickly.
6. I felt a strong urge to travel the world and experience new cultures.
7. The doctor urged her to quit smoking for the sake of her health.
8. As the deadline approached, he could no longer suppress the urge to procrastinate.
9. She had an overwhelming urge to help those less fortunate than herself.
10. His friends urged him to apply for the scholarship, believing he was more than qualified.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/urge>