

UROCELE

Meaning: Urocele is a medical condition characterized by the abnormal swelling or herniation of the urinary bladder into the pelvic region.

1. The patient was diagnosed with a urocele after experiencing unusual swelling in the pelvic region.
2. Surgical intervention may be required to correct a severe urocele and alleviate associated symptoms.
3. A urocele can occur as a result of congenital abnormalities or trauma to the urinary system.
4. Doctors often recommend regular monitoring for a urocele to prevent complications in affected individuals.
5. Understanding the causes and treatment options for a urocele is essential for optimal patient care.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/urocele>