

USURPINGLY

Meaning: In a manner that seeks to take power or position from others, often in an aggressive or overbearing way.

1. The ambitious politician spoke usurpingly, aiming to overshadow his rivals with bold claims.
2. Her usurpingly confident demeanor made it difficult for others to voice their opinions in the meeting.
3. The usurpingly aggressive tactics used by the company led to numerous complaints from its competitors.
4. He approached the project usurpingly, eager to take control and implement his vision without consulting the team.
5. The usurpingly dominant presence of the new manager altered the dynamics of the workplace culture dramatically.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/usurpingly>