

UTTER

Meaning: To utter means to express or articulate something verbally.

1. She couldn't utter a single word in response to the shocking news.
2. The actor's performance was so powerful that it left the audience utterly speechless.
3. He decided to utter a sincere apology after realizing his mistake.
4. In the midst of the chaos, she managed to utter a calm reassurance to her friends.
5. The teacher urged her students to utter their thoughts freely during the discussion.
6. She couldn't utter a single word when she saw the surprise party.
7. The teacher urged the students to utter their thoughts freely during the discussion.
8. In the silence of the room, the only sound was the uttering of his deep breaths.
9. He struggled to utter his feelings, fearing they would not be reciprocated.
10. The critic's review made her question whether she should utter another word in public again.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/utter>